

1 Corinthians 13

- 1) What is this chapter about?
- 2) What is the relationship between this chapter and chapters 12 & 14?
(other than the fact that it is situated between them)
- 3) What things, though meaningful in themselves, are meaningless in the absence of love?
- 4) List the things that love is, does, and does not:
- 5) How do verses 8-10 address the question of modern-day miracles?
 - a) In this context, what is “that which is perfect?”
 - b) Why do Pentecostals need for this to refer to Christ?
- 6) In Paul’s illustration in verse 11, what period is represented by childhood, and what period is represented by manhood?
- 7) What 3 great qualities does Paul list in this chapter?
 - a) Which one is the greatest? Why?
