

Acts 27

- 1) Before Acts 27:1, one must go back to Acts 21:18 to see the 1st person plural pronoun. What is suggested by its reuse?
- 2) Where was Paul going? Why? Who was going with him?
- 3) What do we learn about "Julius" in this chapter?
- 4) Paul and the others boarded an Alexandrian ship. What was it carrying? How many people were on board?
- 5) What advice did Paul give Julius and others at Crete?
- 6) Give a brief description of the nature of the trip from Myra to Malta:
- 7) What ultimately happened to the Alexandrian ship?
- 8) What "I-told-you-so" moment does this chapter contain?
- 9) What did the angel tell Paul?
- 10) How many days were Paul and his shipmates affected by the storm?
- 11) What all was dumped, cut loose or thrown overboard from the ship?
- 12) What condition for survival did Paul give with regard to the ship?
- 13) What did the soldiers want to do with the prisoners? Why were they not allowed to do so?
- 14) From this chapter, describe the relationship between God's instructions and His providence:
