

Questions On Amos Chapter 9

1. God is depicted as standing where?
2. According to verses 2-4, to what places might people flee and still not escape the judgment of God?
 - a. What other places are added in Psalm 139:7-13? (though this passage has to do with God's omniscience)
3. God would set His eyes on them for _____ and not for _____.
 - a. How was this different than the circumstance described in Jeremiah 24:6?
4. Verses 5 and 6 describe what great powers of God? (ok to summarize)
5. To what other nations is Israel compared in verse 7? What is the point of the comparison?
6. What was God going to do to the kingdom of Israel? What caveat is given?
7. What is a "sieve" and what did it illustrate?

- 8. The book of Amos ends with a message of hope. From James' use of Amos 9:11-12 in Acts 15:16-17, what do we learn about the time of its fulfillment?
 - a. In the Acts 15 passage, what were Peter and James trying to prove? (see verses 7-9)

- 9. What is the point of the farming illustrations in verse 13?

- 10. At least some "captives" would be brought back to their land and remain forever. Given the Messianic nature of the previous verses, what are these final verses likely teaching?