

Deuteronomy 13

1. This chapter deals primarily with different sources of enticement to do what particular sin?
  - a. What three sources of enticement are discussed?

  - b. What aspects of life and relations are covered by these three categories of people who might have tempted the Jews with this sin?

2. What was the punishment for doing this type of false teaching:
  - a. For a prophet?

  - b. For a family member?
    1. What role would family members have in administering this punishment?

  - c. For community / city members / leaders?
    1. Who else was to be punished if they allowed this teaching to happen?

3. According to verse 8, what were family members not to do towards the enticer?

4. Many people argue that the death penalty is not a deterrent against further crime. What does verse 11 of this chapter say to this?

a. What does Ecclesiastes 8:11 teach about crime and punishment?

5. Why is false teaching so dangerous? (see verse 10 for the general reason, but feel free to elaborate with specifics if you wish)

6. What lessons can we learn from this chapter about:

a. False teaching and fellowship? (cp. 2 John 9-11)

b. Family relations in situations of spiritual rebellion? (cp. Matthew 10:34-40)

c. The extent of civil authority over a child of God? (cp. Romans 13:1-4 + Acts 5:29)
