

Deuteronomy 21

1. What process was to be followed in determining guilt in the case of a slain man found in a field?
 - a. What reason was given for this in verse 9?
2. What laws governed the taking of a captive woman for one's wife?
3. What law is made about the implementation of the law of the firstborn in cases where a man had two wives, but loved one more than the other?
4. What process was to be followed in dealing with a rebellious son?
5. What form of punishment is discussed in the last two verses of this chapter?
 - a. What rules made about the implementation of this form of punishment?