

Deuteronomy 29

1. This chapter is primarily about God's _____ with the Jewish people. (see verses 1, 9, 12 & 25 for help)
  - a. This newest one was made in the land of _____, whereas the old one was made at _____.
2. Of what history does Moses remind the Jews in order to emphasize God's greatness and His past protective care of them?
  - a. What interesting observation is made about the Jew's clothes and sandals during the 40 year wilderness wandering?
3. The history of Israel's dealings with Sihon and Og is mentioned not only in this chapter and in the original account in Numbers, but where else?
4. What did the Jews have to do in order to remain in a covenant relationship with God?
5. The Egypt experience is mentioned in this chapter for two different reasons. As noted in question 2, verses 2-4 cite that experience to show God's power and concern. For what purpose is it cited in verses 16-18?
  - a. Who is described as a root bearing poisonous and bitter fruit? (18-19)
  - b. To what modern day false doctrine can the attitude of verse 19 be compared?

6. Verses 20-28 describe the cascading consequences of the sin of idolatry:
- a. What would the consequences be for the idolater himself?
  - b. How far could this error potentially extend? (28)
  - c. How would the next generation react? To what great act of judgment would they compare God's actions? (22-23)
  - d. What would "the (other) nations" say? (24)
  - e. What would "the people" say? (25)
7. Verse 29 of this chapter is an often-cited passage, particularly in connection with the subject of Bible authority. What does the verse mean?
