

Job 25

1. Who does Bildad contrast with one another in this chapter?
  - a. Given the subject of the book and who Bildad is answering, who does he have primary reference to when he argues that man cannot be “righteous” or “pure?”
  - b. Is Bildad correct in saying that man cannot be righteous or pure? (for help see 1 John 3:7 and 1 Jn. 3:3)
2. Bildad is right to acknowledge God’s power and sovereignty, but where does his argument go too far?
3. To what luminaries does Job compare man?
4. To what invertebrates does Bildad compare man?
