

Job 31

1. This last speech by Job is similar to what other recent chapter?
2. What “covenant” had Job made with his eyes?
  - a. How does this relate to pornography?
  - b. How does it relate to Matthew 5:28?
  - c. Job goes on to speak of adultery (vs. 9-12). What consequences does he cite of this sin?
3. What did Job say that it was for a righteous person to commit iniquity? (v. 3)
4. Most of this chapter is written in an “If / Then” format, in which Job suggests some possibility, then states the consequence. How is this a defense for Job’s integrity?
5. What would be the consequence IF Job had:
  - a. Walked in falsehood or ran to deceit? (5)
  - b. Turned aside and his heart gone after his eyes? (7)

Continued: What would be the consequence if Job had:

- c. Been enticed toward another woman? (9)

- d. Rejected the cause of a male or female servant? (13)

- e. Withheld from the poor, failed to help widows and orphans, or harmed any of them? (16-22)

- f. Trusted in wealth or worshipped idols? (24-28)

- g. Rejoiced at the ruin of his enemies, concealed his iniquities, or abused his land and failed to make rent payments? (29-40)

6. Verses 35-37 contain an interlude.

- a. What plea does Job make?

- b. What would Job bear on his shoulder?

- c. What would Job give account of?
