

Job 35

1. According to the KJV, NKJV, ASV, NASB and NIV in verse 2, Elihu accused Job of claiming to be “more righteous than God.” Where did Job ever make such a claim?
  - a. Had Job made such a claim, would he have been right?
  - b. What common rhetorical method and logical fallacy did Elihu here use as the basis of his accusation?
2. In verse 3, Elihu appears to have misunderstood the context of Job 9:22-24 and 12:6 (and chapters 21 and 24). Was Job’s point in those passages to argue that there was no purpose in living righteously? (see 13:15 or 19:25-26 for help)
  - a. What was Job’s point in those passages?
3. In verses 6 & 7, what two conditions of man did Elihu say have no direct impact upon God?
4. In verse 8, what did Elihu accuse Job of being?
5. Verses 9-12 address the cries of the oppressed:
  - a. What type of cry does God ignore?
  - b. What type of cry does God hear?
6. What will God not listen to, according to Elihu?
7. According to Elihu, why were Job’s words “without knowledge?”
