

Job 7

1. Who is speaking in this chapter?
2. As he expressed in chapters 3 & 6, Job still longs for what event?
 - a. Verse 1 in the King James says, "Is there not an appointed time to man upon the earth." According to Hebrews 9:27, what is "appointed" for man?
 - b. In verses 1 and 2, what analogy does Job use to describe life and death?
3. What type of earthly life did Job expect (vs. 3, 7 and 16)?
4. From verses 4-6 and 14, list the physical and mental problems that Job had:
5. Verses Verses 8-10 describe the nature and consequences of death:
 - a. What point does he make about being seen after death?
 - b. What illustration does he cite for something quickly vanishing?
 - c. What is "Sheol," and what consequence does Job cite for one going there? (v. 9)

- d. Does Job deny the resurrection in verse 9? (hint: see 19:26)
 - e. In this context, what did Job mean when he spoke of one not coming up from Sheol? (v. 9)
6. What does Job justify himself in doing? (v. 11)
7. What was Job's point in verses 17-19?
8. In the previous chapter Job denied having sinned against God. In verse 20 of this chapter he speaks of conditions "IF" he had sinned.
- a. What does Job call God in this verse?
 - b. Assuming that he had sinned, what was Job implying about God's treatment of him in the series of questions in verses 20 and 21?
9. What time did Job assume was running out? (last part of 21)