

Jude

1. Describe the author of this book:
 - a. Comparing and contrasting the Apostle lists in Matthew 10:2-4 and Luke 6:14-16, what other names did this Jude (Judas) have?
2. What is this book about?
 - a. What other New Testament teaching does it resemble?
3. What subject matter did Jude originally intend to address?
 - a. What did he actually address?
 - b. Explain the implications of this switch with respect to Bible inspiration:
 - c. What help does 1 Corinthians 14:32 provide with respect to this question?
4. What kind of entrance did the false teachers make?
5. How does one turn God's "grace" into "lasciviousness?"
 - a. Thought Question: What modern error does this resemble?
6. What did the people once know, but needed to be reminded of? (I am asking about a principle or concept, not the particular examples...)
7. What examples of divine judgment does the writer cite?

8. How does Jude's list differ from Peter's? (2 Peter 2)

9. Jude (v. 9) elaborates more on the angel example than does Peter (2:11). What effect might this fact have in determining which epistle came first?
 - a. What do we learn from Jude's epistle regarding the rank of Michael?

 - b. Is this taught elsewhere in Scripture?

10. Why does Jude compare false teachers to:
 - a. Brute beasts?

 - b. Cain?

 - c. Balaam?

 - d. Korah?

 - e. Raging waves of the sea?

11. What were the "feasts of charity?" (or, what were they supposed to have been?)

12. Who is quoted by Jude? What other N.T. writer quoted from non-canonical sources? (hint: Acts 17:28 & Titus 1:12)

13. What things motivated the false teachers?

14. Describe the 2 different approaches to saving sinners:
