

Leviticus 2

- 1) Chapter one dealt with blood sacrifices: What kind of sacrifice is described in this chapter?
- 2) The King James has “meat” offering in this chapter. “Meat” is generally understood as some type of animal flesh. How do we know that the offerings of this chapter were not fleshy?
- 3) What was to be poured on and/or mixed with the grain offerings?
- 4) Grain sacrifices were consumed in what two ways?
- 5) As seen before with the blood offerings, how did God view the grain offering?
- 6) What latitude was given with respect to cooking methods? (there are 3 if counting the cakes - 4 if you include the firstfruit grain)
- 7) With the grain offerings of this chapter, what two substances were not to be added?
- 8) What is said about “salt” in the chapter? (explain both the physical and symbolic applications)
 - a) How does Jesus apply the term “salt” in Matthew 5:13?
- 9) What rule was made concerning “firstfruit” grain offerings?
- 10) What spice is frequently mentioned in this chapter?
- 11) Who was authorized to eat the edible portion? (Lev. 6:18 for help)
