

Leviticus 26

- 1) Though this chapter addresses a number of specifics under each general category, what two general types of human behavior are addressed in this chapter?
 - a) What two types of divine response are addressed?
 - b) What other O.T. book and chapter parallels this chapter?
- 2) Verse 1 of this chapter repeats the 2nd Commandment: What addition is made with regard to the potential scale of this sin?
- 3) Several aspects of life are cited in which God would bless and help the people if they obeyed Him. How would God help the people,
 - a) Agriculturally?
 - b) Socially/Civilly?
 - c) Militarily?
 - d) Nationally/Numerically?
 - e) Spiritually?

- 4) What past action does God cite as proof of His ability to do such things for the people?

- 5) Several aspects of life are cited in which God would curse and hinder the people if they disobeyed Him. How would God punish the people,
 - a) Personally/Bodily (involving health)?

 - b) Agriculturally?
 - i) What extreme practice is cited to show how hungry people would get?
 - c) Militarily?

 - d) Socially (involving animals)?

 - e) Socially (involving their homeland)?

- 6) What is the significance of the oft-repeated phrase “seven times over?” In what event would such a degree of punishment be implemented?

- 7) What illustration is used to emphasize how fearful and nervous people would be?

- 8) How could the people be forgiven?