

Questions on Proverbs Chapter 29

1. Who will be broken beyond healing? (1)
2. (Note: As in the previous chapter, several Proverbs in this chapter also address civil rulers. As I did in chapter 28, I will group those questions here.) What happens when the wicked rule? (verse 2)
 - a. What does heavy taxation do to a land? (4)
 - b. What happens when a ruler listens to falsehoods? (12)
 - c. What happens for the king who faithfully judges the poor? (14)
 - d. What might a person not always get from a ruler that he can always get from the Lord? (26)
3. What does one do who flatters his neighbor? (5)
4. What ensnares an evil man? (6)
5. A righteous man is concerned about whose rights? (7)
6. What does a fool do when he has an argument with a wise man? (9)
7. According to some versions in verse 11, a fool gives “full vent” to his anger, feelings or spirit. What does he lose in these situations?
 - a. Conversely, what does a wise man do? (11)

- 8. What does the poor man and the oppressor have in common? (13)
- 9. What does the rod and rebuke do for a child? (15)
 - a. What happens when a child is not disciplined? (15)
 - b. What happens when a child is disciplined? (17)
 - c. What is often not accomplished by mere words? (19)
- 10. What do people do when there is no divine guidance (revelation, prophetic vision)? (18)
- 11. Why are hasty words typically dangerous? (20)
- 12. What is the result of wrath and anger? (22)
 - a. What does a wise man do with wrath? (8)
- 13. What brings one low? (23)
- 14. What is an unjust man to the righteous? (27)